CB West's Miller attains Eagle

Timothy Steven Miller of Boy Scout Troop 6 was awarded the rank of Eagle Scout at an Eagle Court of Honor at Doylestown United Methodist Church, the troop's sponsor.

Guest speakers included Miller's godfather, Roger Riedley, and Michael Sykes, his teacher at Middle Bucks Institute of Technology. Barbara N. Lyons, chairwoman of the Board of Supervisors of Doylestown Township, also spoke and awarded a commendation to Miller on behalf of the township.

Miller began his scouting career with Pack 24 in 2000, attaining the Arrow of Light award, which is the highest award a cub scout can achieve. He joined Troop 6 in 2004 and since then has attended six summer camps as well as attended Philmont High Adventure Ranch in Cimarron, N.M., where he and his crew backpacked the lower Rockies for two weeks.

His Eagle Scout Leadership Project took place at the Doylestown Senior Center, where he designed and constructed a bocce ball court. Miller had to raise $1,475 through fund-raisers to pay for the materials. The entire project took 370 hours to complete.

Miller attends CB West and MBIT for carpentry and plans to attend a trade school following graduation in 2012.
